

GÉANT
connect • communicate • collaborate

Using high speed networking, GÉANT brings artists and performers together across cultures and vast distances, to advance the arts and enable exciting new performances never before possible.

Advancing the Arts

GÉANT is the high-performance pan-European communications infrastructure dedicated to the research and education community. Together with Europe's national research networks, GÉANT connects 40 million users in over 8,000 institutions across 40 countries.
