

As part of a unique infrastructure of high speed networks, powerful computing resources and international databases, GÉANT is helping early diagnosis and treatment of Alzheimer's Disease.

Improving quality of life

GÉANT is the high-performance pan-European communications infrastructure dedicated to the research and education community. Together with Europe's national research networks, GÉANT connects 40 million users in over 8,000 institutions across 40 countries.

www.geant.net

